John Dorris Jr., went down to Memphis Wednesday morning on moving picture show business.

W. P. Meatte, who has been confined to his bed for the past week or two, is now able to be out again.

This is Chili Con Carne weather. We handle the kind that started the war in Mexico. Buckley. S-1f

Mrs. Viva Wathen, nee Smith, and two little children are here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. A. C. Underhill, and family.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the stockholders of the Hayti Ice and Cold Storage Company, of Hayti, Missouri, for the election of officers for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, will be held at the office of said company, in the City of Hayti, Missouri, on Thursday, January 20, 1916, between the hours of nine and twelve a. m. All stockholders are requested to be present.

This January 4, 1916.
FRED MORGAN, President.
CHAS. MORGAN, Secretary.

This paper desires to compliment the Sikeston Standard, the Caruthersville Republican, the Hayti Herald and the Blytheville, Ark., Courier for their handsome Christmas editions with colored covers, and every page of which manifested the reason for the labor and artistic production, in the advertisements of the progressive, wide-awake merchants of the four respective towns.—Portageville Missourian.

The marriage of Miss LaBelle North and G. William Joeckel was quietly solemnized at 9:15 o'clock New Year's Eve at the parsonage of the Lutheran church, the Rev. M. J. Brueggeman officiating. Robert Joeckel and Miss Ardath Bilger were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Joeckel are at home to their friends at 1250 Tutwiler avenue.—Commercial Appeal.

Mrs. R. H. Brown and little daughter of Memphis, Tenn., who have been visiting the family of Mr. Mrs. B. F. Allen for several days, returned home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Letitia McFarland, primary teacher in our public schools, has renewed her subscription to the Herald for another year.

SCHOOL NOTES.

By W. H. JOHNSON, Superintendent.

The enrollment since the holidays, as was expected, has increased considerably. The largest increase was in room five here there were so many new ones that the seating capacity of the two adjoining rooms was taxed to the limit to accommodate them.

The increased attendance at this time usually crowds rooms one and two more than any others but for some reason the crowds in these grades are about normal since the holidays.

The boys have their indoor basket ball court in the Famous Building, complete. A regular schedule of games will begin next week. We are trying to come in for some league games, and from present indications I think we shall succeed in that direction. The league was organized before we secured an indoor, or we might have been on the regular schedule.

The high school students are now practicing a play which they expect to render during the latter part of this month. The play is a good one and each assignment seems to be well adapted to the player.

This year our school will graduate its first four year class. The candidates for graduation are: Bonnie Hart, Lillie Sprayberry, Isaiah Faris, Blair Buckley and Harry Gettings. These young folks are to be congratulated upon having had the staying qualities about them to finish the course offered them in this school, and they are extremely fortunate, I think, in having the honor of being the first class to finish this course.

In order to commemorate our first year as a first-class high school, the students expect to get out a "High School Annual." This plan has been in mind as far back as two years ago, and we are glad the time for work is here. The undertaking of this work will need the support of every one who can give us aid in any way. The annuals will be book size and will contain the pictures of all the high school students by classes; the athletic activities will be in pictorial form; in fact, all the activities of the school will be shown by the best pictures we can get. A history of the school will be a part of the literary work of the editorial staff getting out the annual. These books will be souvenirs worthy of being kept as such by anyone. The expense of publishing these will, necessarily, be large, and only a limited number will be published. The soliciting committee will call on those who would like to have annuals—the price, the lowest we can figure it, will be one dollar. We hope every patron in the school who can possibly afford to subscribe will do so, as you cannot secure a copy if your name is not on the list.

Help us make the last half of school the better half. Keep your children in school regularly and you will be doing one of the essentials towards making the last half of the term the better half.

Have you visited school during the term? Then why haven't you?

Chas. Morgan has ordered the Herald sent to his sister, Miss Nelle Morgan, at Kennett. Miss Nelle is a stenographer in one of the law offices in that city.

A. V. Eclus, one of the best clerks this city has ever had, has our thanks for the renewal of his subscription to the Herald.

A GOOD COMPANY.

Cheer up. At the City Hall Opera House, Aiton & Estherman will present Fred Raymond's production of "Little Miss Susan," a four act comedy-drama, with a number of high class specialties, including Anna Lee White in the latest songs.

In "Little Miss Susan" will be seen more real acting and mirth provoking situations than in all other shows combined. This show has had a five months' run in New York and ten months in Chicago, immediately stamping it a universal success.

The people of this city rarely have the opportunity of seeing a show of this character and should avail themselves of this opportunity.

This company will be in Hayti two nights, Monday, "Little Miss Susan" Tuesday, "The Impostor." Do not forget the dates, Monday, and Tuesday, January 10 and 11.

Installation and Banquet.

New Madrid Lodge, No. 429 A. F. & A. M., met at the Hall last Monday night, and Deputy Grand Master Virgil P. Adams of Hayti, assisted by Acting Grand Marshal W. W. Largent of Portageville installed the following named new officers in a very impressive manner. W. H. Copeland, Worshipful Master; Chas. Knott, Senior Warden; C. M. Shellenberger, Junior Warden; J. E. Gordon, Treasurer; Ray Sharp and W. W. Edwards, Stewards, and George Ries, Tyler.

The weather was very bad and some of the officers elect and a whole lot of invited guests were unable to attend.

After the installation, an elegant banquet—consisting of all the delicacies of the season—was served in the Hall in the first story of the building.

About 100 Masons and their families enjoyed the feast. Under the conditions of the weather, the attendance was quite large. —New Madrid Record.

Dan Dortch, who is now with the Gasoline Supply Co., of Des Moines, Ia., arrived Monday morning for a visit with friends. Dan will leave the latter part of the week for Springfield, Tenn., where he will spend the rest of the month visiting his mother. Dan says he and Henry are getting along fine and that they have good positions.

Julius Kohn, one of the young merchants of Kennett, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Kohn, in this city. Julius left on the afternoon train for Memphis for several days visit with relatives.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Morris Wednesday night, December 29, a fine boy. The youngster arrived just one day before his grandmother, Mrs. Lou Morris' 75th anniversary.

Byron Bryant, one of the young farmers of the Ingram Ridge neighborhood, was attending to business matters in Caruthersville Monday.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Hayti, Missouri, for the election of directors for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, will be held at the Bank, in the City of Hayti, Mo., on Wednesday, January 19, 1916, between the hours of nine and twelve a. m. All the stockholders are requested to be present.

This January 4, 1916.
J. L. DORRIS, President.
T. A. McNAIL, Cashier.

Willard Ray, one of our young merchants, was attending to business in Caruthersville Monday.

Mrs. Ruby Graham and little daughter of Mathews are in this city this week visiting Mrs. Graham's father, W. J. Morris, and family.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Alex, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Russell, was ill a few days this week.

J. S. Wahl and Wm. Wicks of Caruthersville were in this city awhile Tuesday night while on their way to St. Louis.

IT IS TIME TO TURN OVER A NEW LEAF

☐ The first of the year is a good time for breaking loose from habits.

☐ We feel sure that many people in this community who do not trade with us, are really convinced that it would pay to do so, yet they continue the HABIT of going to the store which is most convenient.

☐ Break the habit of indifferent drug buying. Let us serve you regularly during 1916.

It will pay you in satisfaction, security and saving.

IF YOU DON'T TRADE HERE NOW YOU WILL LATER ON

FIFTEEN PER CENT REDUCTION SALE

We are going to have a sale here beginning Saturday, January 1st. We are going to offer seasonable goods at a season when you need them, right now at the beginning of the New Year.

We will offer everything in our large stock at a discount of 15% below our present low prices we have been making, and will continue this sale during the month of January, 1916. With the already low prices offered before, there will be bargains unheard of before in Hayti. Come early while selections are good and often. I am personally inviting you to come and share in this money saving opportunity.

We will make buying a pleasure to you, and with this great reduction, we have got Montgomery Ward and Sears & Roebuck skinned a block, besides you have an opportunity to inspect our goods before buying, while with the Mail Order Houses you pay in advance and inspect after getting them.

You will not find old shopworn goods, for not a thing has been in the store six months and most of it is stock less than a month old.

UNCLE FULLER'S VARIETY STORE

OUR HEAVY XMAS TRADE

Nearly cleaned us out of goods. But we are on the job again with brand new goods.

December was our record month in point of sales.

We intend to make 1916 the record year if clean seasonable goods, low prices, courteous treatment and close attention count for anything.

Visit our store and see what we are doing for our customers and will do for you.
